Be allowed to

To be allowed to bedeutet dürfen, Not to be allowed to nicht dürfen. Du kannst diese Form in alle Zeiten setzen.

Present tense

I am allowed to watch detective films. I am not allowed to watch horror films.

Past tense

I was allowed to watch detective films. I was not allowed to watch horror films.

Present perfect tense

I have been allowed to watch detective films. I have not been allowed to watch horror films.

Past perfect tense

I had been allowed to watch detective films. I had not been allowed to watch horror films.

Will-Future

I will be allowed to watch detective films. I will not be allowed to watch horror films.

Auch mustn't bedeutet nicht dürfen, kann aber nur in der Gegenwart verwendet werden.
You mustn't smoke in here. = You aren't allowed to smoke in here.

© VERITAS-Verlag, Linz